The stage of “liberation”

Usually the buyer uses the product in full for its intended purpose. In cases where the consumer does not have time to use the product in full, up to the expiration date, or improper storage conditions, the product deteriorates. In this case, the buyer can get rid of the product by throwing it, or give to animals. Packaging with the product can be thrown, hand processing, or keep for later use for other purposes.

Store visitors are people with different income levels who purchase different prices and with different frequency. Primarily oriented to product quality and price.

SOCIAL NETWORKS: FRIENDS OR FOES?

Key words: social networks, time, statistics, influence, addiction

More than 10 years people use social networks in their daily life. Unfortunately, people spend too much time online and get addicted to such kind of the internet resources. That is why I created a poll where participants were asked for some details about their time spending in social networks. The main goal of the created poll is to find out if there any problems in the society caused by social networks usage, how much time people of different age spend in social networks and whether their participants want to use social networks less or more in future.

Google Forms, one of Google services, was used to creating a poll and gathering data. This service allows users to create internet surveys, monitor the statistics or watch diagrams of results. Moreover, Google Form is absolutely free and open service.

According to the statistics, which poll shows, the overall amount of people who took part in poll is 26. Age of participants varies from 17 to 65 years: 12 people (46.2%) in the age of 17; 6 people (23.1%) in the age of 18; 2 people (7.6%) in the age of 28-32, 5 people (19.1%) in the age of 43-46 and 1 person (3.8%) who is 65.

Using the results of this survey, it is possible to identify the time people spend in social networks: only 15% of people spend less than 45 minutes per day and there are no respondents, who don’t use social networks at all. The results of poll are spread in the following way: 50.8% of respondents use social networks more than 3 hours per day, 23.1% – from 1.5 to 3 hours, 30.8% – from 45 minutes to 1.5 hours.
